

LAWYER MONTHLY MAGAZINE SELECTS SNELL & WILMER PARTNER
HEIDI MCNEIL STAUDENMAIER FOR THE 2014 WOMEN IN LAW AWARDS

PHOENIX (June 19, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix partner Heidi McNeil Staudenmaier has been selected by Lawyer Monthly Magazine for the 2014 Women in Law Awards.

After the success of other long-established awards, Lawyer Monthly Magazine started the Women in Law Awards to celebrate and highlight the achievements of women in the legal profession across the globe. In its debut issue, women were selected after five months of research and preparation. The awards recognize female legal experts who have influenced the wider legal profession in their jurisdiction. Winners include all areas of the legal profession from high-achieving junior associates to long serving partners. Lawyer Monthly Magazine compared each vote against a strict set of measurable criteria to produce a list of finalists and then the winners.

Lawyer Monthly Magazine is a global publication that provides news, analysis and features on all the latest headlines within the legal and corporate worlds. The publication focuses on issues affecting the legal community globally, including the major regions such as the U.S., Europe and Asia, across all sectors of law.

Staudenmaier is one of 47 women from the U.S. included in this awards publication. She is nationally recognized in the areas of Indian law, gaming law and business litigation. At Snell & Wilmer, she represents tribes, tribal entities and businesses who engage in business transactions with tribes and tribal entities. Staudenmaier is a past president of the International Masters of Gaming Law, a founding member of the Native American Bar Association of Arizona and the executive editor of Gaming Law Review and Economics. She has been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® in the areas of Commercial Litigation, Gaming Law and Native American Law (2005-2014) and was named Phoenix Gaming Lawyer of the Year in 2011.
