

TEACH FOR AMERICA APPOINTS ATTORNEY GREG GAUTAM TO PHOENIX JUNIOR BOARD

PHOENIX (July 1, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix attorney Greg Gautam has been appointed to the Teach for America Phoenix Junior Board.

The Phoenix Junior Board of Teach for America seeks greater involvement of the Phoenix metropolitan area's young professionals in strengthening Arizona's education system. Formed in 2012, the Teach for America Phoenix Junior Board is made up of young professionals who work in various sectors across the Valley working to increase awareness and compel other young leaders to engage in the conversation about education. A significant component of increasing such involvement is connecting like-minded individuals with each other as well as the resources necessary to become an advocate for positive change in the Arizona education system. Teach for America is a national teaching corps dedicated to finding, training and supporting college graduates and professionals to teach in urban and rural public schools for two years commitments. They are lifelong leaders in the effort to expand educational opportunity.

At Snell & Wilmer, Gautam focuses his practice on various areas of employee benefits, including qualified and nonqualified retirement plans, health and welfare plans and executive compensation. He also advises clients on benefits and compensation issues in connection with corporate transactions. Gautam uses his knowledge of employee benefits laws, regulations and the Internal Revenue Code to assist clients in achieving their human capital and compensation objectives.
