

SEVEN ATTORNEYS FROM SNELL & WILMER'S CALIFORNIA OFFICES CONTRIBUTE TO LOS ANGELES ADOPTION DAY PROGRAM

LOS ANGELES (August 5, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that seven attorneys from our California offices participated in the 2014 Los Angeles Adoption Day Program. Brian Arnold, Tiffany Brosnan, Claire Edwards, Jordan Lee, James Scheinkman, Marjorie Witter and Carol Wong volunteered their legal services for adoption cases arranged through Public Counsel in Los Angeles. Hearings were held on August 1 in Monterey Park.

The Los Angeles Adoption Day Program is one of four special Adoption Days, where certain courtrooms are dedicated exclusively to adoption hearings held one after the other, enabling record numbers of adoptions to be finalized on the same day. Adoption days culminate in November for National Adoption Day, a celebration where 400 cities in all 50 states perform nearly 5,000 adoptions on one day. The 2014 National Adoption Day will be held on November 22. The Los Angeles Adoption Day Program started in 1997 as a partnership between the Alliance, volunteer attorneys, the Department of Children and Family Services and Public Counsel. The innovative program began as a solution to the overwhelming number of foster child adoptions, which were stuck in a backlog. Together, they cleared the backlog and in doing so, established a national model for performing adoptions. This launched National Adoption Day (NAD). Since 2000, NAD has joined 50,000 children with permanent families. Learn more about National Adoption Day here.

Since our inception, Snell & Wilmer has been committed to community service and leadership. Our attorneys and staff are engaged in a number of community, civic and industry-related activities across the various geographic regions in which we live and work. Each office takes pride in serving our communities by directly supporting local organizations and by supporting the involvement of attorneys and staff in their community activities.
