

SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY JENNIFER PHILLIPS RECEIVES ZELLER FELLOWSHIP AWARD

PHOENIX (November 13, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix attorney Jennifer R. Phillips was honored with the Zeller Fellowship award, presented by the Downtown Scottsdale Young Professionals Kiwanis Club.

Phillips was one of two individuals who were awarded with the Zeller Fellowship. Phillips was awarded in recognition of her efforts over the past year to raise awareness and funds for The Eliminate Project, a joint Kiwanis/UNICEF worldwide effort to eliminate maternal and neonatal tetanus (MNT). The funds her Kiwanis club donated for this year's two Zeller Fellowships have saved 1380 lives (690 lives per fellowship) by treating and/or preventing MNT.

At Snell & Wilmer, Phillips' practice is concentrated in labor and employment law and commercial litigation. Her litigation experience includes federal and state court practice in a variety of employment-related issues. She has assisted her clients in defending against wage and hour, discrimination, harassment and retaliation claims under Title VII, the Arizona Wage Act, the Arizona Employment Protection Act, the Arizona Civil Rights Act and other state and federal laws. She also assists employers with respect to investigations by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Department of Labor. She has counseled large and small employers regarding their obligations under the Fair Labor Standards Act, Title VII, Fair Credit Reporting Act, Americans with Disabilities Act and National Labor Relations Act. Phillips feels privileged to provide pro bono counseling services through the Volunteer Lawyers Program and service to the community through Kiwanis International. She earned her J.D. from the University of Southern California Law School.
