

ATTORNEY ALFREDO SOLÓRZANO JOINS MEXICO OFFICE OF SNELL & WILMER

LOS CABOS (December 5, 2014) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that real estate and commercial finance attorney Alfredo Solórzano has joined the firm’s Mexico office, located in Los Cabos. This addition deepens the firm’s cross-border presence.

Solórzano is licensed in Mexico. His practice emphasizes the representation of U.S.-based companies in connection with real estate transactions, resort and hospitality matters, dispute resolution, project development practice areas and government relations at all levels. He is a graduate of the Universidad Iberoamericana Santa Fe Campus.

The firm’s Mexico practice team has the international experience, resources and insight to support the region’s key initiatives and address the legal issues across various international business matters. It includes both Mexico and U.S.-licensed attorneys who are bilingual and bicultural, and who possess strong relationships with Mexico’s government officials and business leaders. Opened in 2008, Snell & Wilmer’s Mexico office provides a full range of cross-border transactional and regulatory legal services to national and international clients with business ventures throughout Baja and northern Mexico.
