SNELL & WILMER ASSISTS VETERANS AT ANNUAL ARIZONA VETERANS' STANDDOWN

PHOENIX (February 23, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that for the fifth year in a row, attorneys and staff from the firm played an essential role at the Arizona Veterans' StandDown on February 12th. The StandDown is an annual two-day event held at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum that provides a wide array of services to homeless and at-risk veterans, including a Veterans' Court and legal clinic.

Snell & Wilmer's key focus was to help the growing number of veterans who have legal issues in other states. Representatives from the firm drew on their contacts across the country to do things like clear warrants, reinstate drivers' licenses and find legal representation in other jurisdictions. The Snell & Wilmer team, led by partner Craig Logsdon, included partner Rick Erickson, associates Rona Lamiquiz, Sarah Delaney, Ahron Cohen, Seth Goertz, Mark Molique, Zach Fort, Joy Isaacs, Tom Clees and Andrew Sniegowski as well as support staff Trish Seidel, Clara Santa Maria, Brigitte Jordan, Tracy Hobbs, Denise Dolan and Kara Blakey.

"For a lot of us, this is the most rewarding day at work every year," said Logsdon. Secretary Tracy Hobbs, added, "I go every year for the satisfaction of helping veterans who have done so much for me. They are so thankful for the little that we do, it's amazing."

One of the founders of the Veterans' Court, retired Air Force Col. Billy Little, once again had high praise for the Snell & Wilmer team. "Another amazing effort from the professionals at Snell & Wilmer. Thanks for giving a few days of help to people who were willing to give all of their days to us."

The Arizona StandDown is an alliance of community-based, unincorporated organizations that come together to provide services for homeless and at-risk veterans across the state with the help of hundreds of agencies and thousands of community volunteers. The first Veteran's Court in Arizona was implemented a few years ago with the help of several Snell & Wilmer attorneys and has grown to multiple such courts throughout the state.
