SNELL & WILMER RECEIVES PROCLAMATION FOR PRO BONO WORK

DENVER (March 4, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that the Denver office received a proclamation from Colorado Health Network, Inc., recognizing its pro bono efforts representing Howard Dental Center in its merger with Colorado Health Network, Inc. last fall. Denver partner Eric Kintner and Denver associates Wiley Dornseif, Michael Strand and Jason Brinkley contributed over 100 hours of attorney time to the project.

Snell & Wilmer represented Howard Dental Center, a non-profit organization that provides comprehensive and integrated oral healthcare services to adults, youth and children living with HIV/AIDS, in the merger with Colorado Health Network, Inc., an entity that provides healthcare to people with HIV and AIDS. The objective of the merger was to create organizational efficiencies, essentially adding Howard Dental Center's dental services to the menu of services already provided by Colorado Health Network, Inc. The mission of Colorado Health Network, Inc. is to equitably meet the evolving needs of people affected by HIV through prevention, care and advocacy across Colorado.
