LAS VEGAS (March 24, 2015) Snell & Wilmer attorney Charles Gianelloni was named a Rising Star of Business - Class of 2015 by the Las Vegas Business Press. He was one of a select group of 40 honorees who were recognized in the publication's March 16 edition.

“On behalf of the firm, we want to extend our congratulations to Charles on being named a Rising Star of Business for 2015,” said Robert Kinas, Snell & Wilmer partner. “Charles practices law with the same vigor and passion as he does in supporting various charitable causes in our community, including raising money for cancer research in memory of his mother, Charlotte. We couldn't be more proud of Charles,” Kinas added. Kinas nominated Gianelloni for the Rising Stars of Business award.

Gianelloni practices in commercial litigation and bankruptcy in the Las Vegas office and has made Southern Nevada his home for more than a decade, graduating magna cum laude from UNLV with his M.B.A. in 2007 and earning his J.D., summa cum laude, from the William S. Boyd School of Law in 2012.

Gianelloni also serves the community through several board and leadership positions including the Las Vegas American Cancer Society, Board of Directors (2015); Cancer Research Racquet, Co-Organizer International Fundraising Team for independent cancer research grants through the American Cancer Society (2012-present); Las Vegas Fat Boy 5K Run/Walk, Board Member (2009-present); and Nevada Cancer Society's Relay for Life, Team Leader (2009-2011). Gianelloni also donated 550 hours of pro bono service through the Ninth Circuit Pro Bono Program, helping individuals and families who cannot afford to pay for legal counsel navigate the court system and assist in resolving their complex legal issues.

Gianelloni is the third Snell & Wilmer attorney to be named a Rising Star of Business. Attorneys Karl Riley and Marek Bute were named Rising Star honorees in 2014 and 2013, respectively.
