JILL CASSON OWEN ASSUMES ROLE AS PRESIDENT OF CHI OMEGA HOUSE CORPORATION, ZETA BETA CHAPTER

TUCSON (April 17, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Tucson attorney Jill Casson Owen has assumed the role as President of the Chi Omega House Corporation, Zeta Beta Chapter.

The purpose of the corporation is to protect and preserve the assets of the local collegiate chapter facilitating a safe and desirable environment for the local chapter to thrive. The corporation owns, operates and manages the chapter house at the University of Arizona for the local collegiate members. Owen has been on the board since 1992 and in prior years served as secretary. She was elected president in November, 2014.

Chi Omega was founded in 1895 at the University of Arkansas and is the largest women's fraternal organization in the world with over 330,000 initiates and 178 collegiate chapters. Throughout Chi Omega's long and proud history, they have "brought its members unequaled opportunities for personal growth and development," as stated on the organizations website.

In addition to her services with Chi Omega, Owen is vice chair for the Northwest YMCA Board of Managers and volunteers time to the Volunteers Lawyer Program of Southern Arizona. At Snell & Wilmer, Owen has a diverse real estate, general corporate law and business transactional practice, providing advice to public and private entities and individuals. She also advises clients on a variety of federal, state and local regulatory compliance matters. Owen earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Arizona College of Pharmacy and received her J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of Arizona's James E. Rogers College of Law.
