SNELL & WILMER TUCSON PARTNER JEFFREY WILLIS ELECTED SECRETARY-TREASURER OF THE STATE BAR OF ARIZONA

TUCSON (July 6, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Tucson partner Jeffrey Willis has been elected secretary-treasurer of the State Bar of Arizona Board of Governors.

The Board oversees the policy making and operation of the organization. It is comprised of 30 people, four of whom are non-attorney, public members. Attorney members of the Board are elected to three-year terms by peers in their district. The Board is led by five officers who are selected by the Board members. Those officers are president, president-elect, first vice president, second vice president and secretary-treasurer.

At Snell & Wilmer, Willis has a regional commercial litigation practice. Over the last 20 years, he has assisted clients in federal and state litigation in Arizona, Nevada and California involving lender liability, construction disputes, patent infringement, shareholders' rights, toxic and environmental torts, corporate governance, referenda and initiative challenges, trade secrets, antitrust and commercial fraud. Included in that experience are several bench and jury trials. Willis is a seasoned trial lawyer whose complex litigation experience has resulted in favorable verdicts and settlements for his clients.
