ABA SECTION OF ENVIRONMENTAL, ENERGY AND RESOURCES LISTS SNELL & WILMER AMONG TOP FIRMS IN INAUGURAL RECOGNITION PROGRAM

PHOENIX (August 4, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that has been named as one of the Top 10 firms in the western region by the American Bar Association Section of Environment, Energy and Resources (SEER) in its inaugural annual law firm recognition program for six regions of the country. The Top 10 ranking represents the firms, by region, that have the largest number of SEER members.

“The Section’s new Top 10 program recognizes law firms in each region of the country that have made a significant commitment to Section membership,” said Steven Miano, Section Chair. “Their support enables the Section to continue its mission to advance the practice of environmental, energy and resources law.”

Snell & Wilmer’s environmental, energy and natural resources attorneys, located in eight major cities throughout the western United States, provide sophisticated and efficient legal representation in these complex and continually evolving areas of the law. They are well-versed in federal, state, regional and local regulatory and liability issues, and understand the importance of remaining current on the many changes taking place in environmental law. The group represents many different industries including high technology, manufacturing, real estate developers, energy and water utilities, oil and gas pipeline companies, health service providers and mining operations.

SEER is the nation’s premier organization of environmental, energy and resources lawyers. Representing almost 9,000 members with a wide range of professional interests, SEER keep its members abreast of development trends, current court decisions, legislative initiatives and statutes concerning environmental, energy and resources law.
