SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY JOY ISAACS PRESENTS ON EMPLOYMENT SEARCH PROCESS AT RECENT ABA CONFERENCE

PHOENIX (August 24, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix attorney Joy Isaacs recently presented on a panel at the American Bar Association’s Annual Conference.

Isaacs was a panelist in the discussion, “Getting to Hired: Tips for Your Job Search Journey,” where she, along with the other panelists, discussed their experiences of going through the hiring process on both sides; telling their stories, providing tips, and answering questions about the employment search. The panel, attended by attorneys and law students from across the country, took place at the Marriott in downtown Chicago, Illinois.

Joy Isaacs

The American Bar Association (ABA) is the largest voluntary bar association in the United States. The ABA is responsible for establishing legal academic standards and accrediting law schools nationwide. It also develops a model ethical code for the legal profession, and offers programs and services geared at improving members’ competence, ethical conduct, and professionalism.

At Snell & Wilmer, Isaacs focuses her practice on commercial litigation and healthcare, with extensive experience in medical malpractice defense, board licensure issues, and commercial and business torts. She is a member of the firm’s Attorney Development Committee and also serves on the board of directors of the Maricopa County Bar Association Young Lawyer’s Division. Isaacs is currently a district representative to the ABA Young Lawyer’s Division, representing Arizona and New Mexico. She earned both her J.D. and B.S. from the University of Kansas.
