

Established in 1938 • More than 400 Attorneys • Nine Locations
Throughout the Western United States and in Mexico

Announcing ...

SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY ROBIN PERKINS NAMED EDITOR IN CHIEF OF THE PUBLICATIONS COMMITTEE FOR THE ABA'S LITIGATION SECTION CORPORATE COUNSEL COMMITTEE

LAS VEGAS (August 27, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Robin Perkins, an attorney in the firm's Las Vegas office, has been named editor in chief of the Publications Committee for the Corporate Counsel Committee of the Litigation Section of the American Bar Association (ABA). She began serving her term in August. Perkins previously served as the news and development editor since January 2014.

The Corporate Counsel Committee comprises both in-house and outside counsel with a focus on the unique needs of the lawyers who represent corporations. Active for almost 30 years, the Committee's mission is to keep its members abreast of the changes in law and regulations and trends that affect in-house clients, to provide a forum where in-house and outside lawyers can have an open dialogue that results in best practices for litigation management and to lead the profession in finding solutions to various professional issues.

In her role as editor in chief, Perkins is responsible for publishing quarterly newsletters, articles, and news and developments pieces; managing the editorial calendar; and developing and overseeing all of the content on the Corporate Counsel Committee's website. She ensures that the Publications Committee is providing relevant information about cases, trends, and professional issues in the legal industry that is valuable to ABA members and other interested readers.

Robin Perkins

"I am honored to assume this leadership role within the American Bar Association," said Perkins. "As editor in chief, I look forward to working with authors and contributors around the country to ensure a robust website complete with useful and relevant information for our members and the public."

Perkins is active in both community and industry organizations. In addition to her ABA post, she is a member on the Executive Committee of Rebuilding Together Southern Nevada and serves as its secretary. She is also on the board of directors for The Animal Foundation and a member of the Animal Law Section of the Nevada Bar Association and the Animal Legal Defense Fund.

At Snell & Wilmer, Perkins' practice is concentrated in business and commercial litigation, with an emphasis in financial services litigation and construction litigation. Specifically, Perkins defends financial institutions in claims involving fraud, bad faith lending, and common law contracts and torts. She pursues and defends claims on behalf of owners and contractors in mechanic's lien actions, lien priority disputes, delay and impact claims, breach of contract and lease, unjust enrichment and other actions seeking damages in state and federal litigation, arbitration and mediation. Perkins received her J.D. from Texas Tech University School of Law and her B.S., magna cum laude, from New York University.

Perkins has been recognized by Mountain States Super Lawyers®, Rising Stars; Nevada Business Magazine's Legal Elite as a Top Up & Coming Attorney; the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada as an Honor Roll award recipient; and NAWBO's Women of Distinction Awards as a finalist.

About Snell & Wilmer

Founded in 1938, Snell & Wilmer is a full-service business law firm with more than 400 attorneys practicing in nine locations throughout the western United States and in Mexico, including Las Vegas and Reno, Nevada; Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona; Los Angeles and Orange County, California; Denver, Colorado; Salt Lake City, Utah; and Los Cabos, Mexico. The firm represents clients ranging from large, publicly traded corporations to small businesses, individuals and entrepreneurs. For more information, visit www.swlaw.com.

###