SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY JOY ISAACS NOMINATED FOR ABA NATIONAL OUTSTANDING YOUNG LAWYER AWARD

PHOENIX (September 15, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix attorney Joy Isaacs has been nominated by the Maricopa County Bar Association Young Lawyers Division (YLD) for the American Bar Association (ABA) National Outstanding Young Lawyer Award.

The National Outstanding Young Lawyer Award recognizes a young lawyer who exhibits excellence in the profession, service to the profession and the bar, service to the community, and a reputation for the advancement of legal ethics and professional responsibility.

The Maricopa County Bar Association YLD nominated Isaacs for this honor due to her commitment to the bar – she serves on the board of directors of the Maricopa County Bar Association Young Lawyer’s Division and is currently a district representative to the ABA Young Lawyer’s Division, representing Arizona and New Mexico; her commitment to the community – she is co-chair of the Garfield Elementary Neighborhood Partnership Program and serves on the board of directors of Valley Youth Theatre; and her commitment to advancing ethics in the legal profession as evidenced by her involvement in several recent rule change petitions to the Arizona Supreme Court.

Joy Isaacs

At Snell & Wilmer, Isaacs focuses her practice on commercial litigation and healthcare, with experience in medical malpractice defense, board licensure issues, and commercial and business torts. She is a member of the firm’s Attorney Development Committee and Mentoring Subcommittee. Isaacs earned both her J.D. and B.S. from the University of Kansas.
