SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY NEIL PECK REAPPOINTED TO THE CITY AND COUNTY OF DENVER CAREER SERVICE BOARD

DENVER (September 15, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Neil Peck, of counsel in the firm's Denver office, has been reappointed by Mayor Michael Hancock to the City and County of Denver Career Service Board.

The Career Service (CS) Board consists of five Denver citizens appointed by the Mayor for five-year staggered terms. The Board provides oversight for the Office of Human Resources. Its charge is to maintain the merit system, which is the foundation of the Career Service personnel system. It is responsible for setting policy, considering appeals and making rule changes that enhance the work environment. The Board selects the Office of Human Resources Executive Director and also appoints CS Hearings Officers.

Neil Peck

"I am honored to have been selected by Mayor Hancock to continue my service as a member of the Career Service Board," said Peck. "Snell & Wilmer has a long tradition of community, industry and government service and leadership. I will continue to utilize my experience to provide guidance on matters of significant importance to the City and County's Career Service Board."

Peck was also recently elected chair of the State of Colorado Personnel Board, to which he was appointed by Governor John Hickenlooper. The State Personnel Board has a similar mandate to the CS Board and makes rules governing the state personnel system and hears appeals by applicants and employees in the state personnel system. Peck has been appointed by four Colorado governors to state boards and commissions.

Peck's practice is concentrated in complex civil and criminal litigation, including appeals, involving commercial, trade regulation, environmental, natural resources, white collar criminal defense, and international issues. He represents major American and international corporate clients, including corporate officers, in complex civil and criminal business litigation matters involving issues such as accounting fraud, foreign corrupt practices, environmental, natural resources, antitrust, and false advertising. Peck received his B.A. magna cum laude from Tufts University and his LL.B from Yale Law School.
