SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY AARON D. FORD ELECTED TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE PUBLIC EDUCATION FOUNDATION

LAS VEGAS (September 25, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Aaron D. Ford, an attorney in the firm’s Las Vegas office, has been elected to the board of directors of The Public Education Foundation. He began serving his term on September 17. Ford joins 61 individuals who serve on the board, whose members serve staggered, two-year terms.

The Public Education Foundation, a nonprofit organization, works to bring about transformational change in teaching, learning and education leadership. Established in 1991, its first order of business was to define possibilities and offer solutions to the challenges of educating a growing and diverse Southern Nevada population. Today, it works to develop and implement school improvement strategies, create model programs, leverage resources, award grants and scholarships, and improve the standing of public schools in our community, state and nation.

Aaron D. Ford

At Snell & Wilmer, Ford’s practice is concentrated on complex commercial litigation, alternative dispute resolution and products liability.

He is active in the community and serves on the boards of Olive Crest of Nevada, Junior Achievement of Southern Nevada and the “I Have a Dream” Foundation. He was recently recognized as best Senate Freshman by the Las Vegas Review-Journal, Rookie of the Year by the Reno Gazette Journal and Senator of the Year by both Help Animals Nevada and the Nevada Conservation League for his work during the 2013 Nevada Legislative session. In addition, Ford has been named a Super Lawyer® and Rising Star® for several years, and he was recognized by In Business Las Vegas (now Vegas Inc.) in 2011 as a recipient of its 40 Under 40 award and in 2009 for its Diversity in Action Award. Ford has also served in the Nevada Senate (District 11) since 2012.
