LAS VEGAS OFFICE OF SNELL & WILMER EXPANDS WITH ADDITION OF TWO ATTORNEYS

LAS VEGAS (October 6, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that attorneys Kade D. Miller and Alaina C. Stephens recently joined the firm's Las Vegas office.

Miller is an associate in the Las Vegas office and works with the firm's Corporate and Securities and Commercial Finance practice groups. Prior to joining Snell & Wilmer, Miller practiced gaming law at a regional firm with an emphasis on commercial and interactive gaming, contests and promotions, and general corporate law. Miller clerked for the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in Salt Lake City, Utah. He received his J.D. from Brigham Young University, J. Reuben Clark Law School and his M.A. and B.S. in Accountancy from Brigham Young University, Marriott School of Management.

Kade D. Miller

Stephens joins the office as a staff attorney. She focuses her practice in bad faith insurance litigation and insurance coverage. Prior to joining Snell & Wilmer, Stephens worked in insurance litigation and coverage for four years at an insurance defense law firm in Hartford, Connecticut. After relocating to Las Vegas, she gained valuable experience defending general contractors and subcontractors in construction defect litigation, as well as defending insureds in personal injury lawsuits. Stephens received her J.D. from Quinnipiac University School of Law and her B.A. in Journalism from the University of Connecticut.
