AMERICAN LUNG ASSOCIATION NOMINATES SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY PAUL SHAKESPEAR TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SALT LAKE CITY (November 10, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce attorney Paul Shakespear has been nominated to serve on the board of directors for the Utah Chapter of the American Lung Association.

“We are extremely excited to have someone like Paul on our leadership board,” said Jamie Riccobono, executive director for the American Lung Association in Utah. “His personal connection and passion for fighting lung disease is a huge asset to our organization.”

The American Lung Association in Utah is the leading organization working to save lives by improving lung health and preventing lung disease, through research, education and advocacy. The work of the American Lung Association is focused on four strategic imperatives: to defeat lung cancer; to improve the air we breathe; to reduce the burden of lung disease on individuals and their families; and to eliminate tobacco use and tobacco-related diseases.

Paul Shakespear

Shakespear focuses his practice in commercial litigation and defending clients in product liability, medical malpractice and personal injury cases. His commercial litigation experience includes real estate and title insurance disputes, business membership cases and contract matters. Shakespear’s product liability defense focuses on defending automotive and medical device manufacturers. He received his J.D. from Brigham Young University and his B.A., summa cum laude, from Southern Utah University.
