AZ BUSINESS LEADERS MAGAZINE RECOGNIZES THREE SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEYS

PHOENIX (November 16, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that John J. Bouma, Charles F. Hauff, Jr. and John Lomax, Jr. have earned recognition in AZ Business Leaders magazine, an annual publication by AZ Big Media that profiles Arizona's most respected and influential business leaders.

AZ Business Leaders are selected by the executive leadership of AZ Big Media in consultation with industry experts in law, medicine, technology, finance, education, energy and government. AZ Business Leaders may also include those who receive the most votes on the publication's website.

After serving more than 30 years as Snell & Wilmer chairman, Bouma stepped down from the position in early March. He remains active in his practice, which emphasizes complex business litigation, including antitrust and legal malpractice defense, and continues to serve on the firm's executive and compensation committees.

Hauff's professional background includes intellectual property counseling, patent, trademark and copyright prosecution, related litigation and licensing. He has technical experience in, among other fields, the chemical, biotechnical, mechanical, electromechanical, computer software, medical products, acoustics and life sciences disciplines. Hauff has handled a variety of litigation matters for clients of varying sizes both in the United States and abroad.

Lomax focuses his practice on the defense of labor and employment matters. He represents employers in class and collective actions, and he has an active practice representing employers on wage and hour issues, restrictive covenants and trade secrets, affirmative action plans, employment agreements, reductions-in-force and EEO cases.
