CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS FOUNDATION, ORANGE COUNTY WELCOMES SNELL & WILMER PARTNER ERIC PEZOLD TO THE BOARD

ORANGE COUNTY (November 30, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Orange County and Los Angeles partner Eric Pezold has been selected by the Constitutional Rights Foundation, Orange County (CRF-OC) to serve on its Board of Directors.

The Constitutional Rights Foundation's mission is to instill in our nation's youth a deeper understanding of citizenship through values expressed in our Constitution and its Bill of Rights, and to educate young people to become active and responsible participants in our society. CRF is dedicated to assuring our country's future by investing in our youth today. CRF is a non-profit, non-partisan, community-based organization dedicated to educating America's young people about the importance of civic participation in a democratic society. Under the guidance of a Board of Directors chosen from the worlds of law, business, government, education, the media and the community, CRF develops, produces and distributes programs and materials to teachers, students and public-minded citizens all across the nation.

Eric Pezold

At Snell & Wilmer, Pezold's practice is concentrated primarily in bankruptcy, reorganization, creditor's rights, foreclosure, receivership, Assignments for the Benefit of Creditors (ABCs), and workout law; federal and state court commercial and business litigation; and real estate tax investments. Pezold has been an active member of the Orange County chapter of CRF since 2009. He joined the Career Forum Committee in 2011, where he has served as co-chair since 2014.
