ARIZONA JUSTICE PROJECT APPOINTS TUCSON PARTNER JEFFREY WILLIS TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

TUCSON (November 30, 2015) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Tucson Partner Jeffrey Willis has been appointed to the Arizona Justice Project Board of Directors.

To prevent denial of access to justice, members from the Arizona Attorneys for Criminal Justice founded the Arizona Justice Project in 1998. Its mission is to represent indigent Arizona inmates whose claims of innocence or manifest injustice have gone overlooked. The Justice Project reviews and assists in cases of actual innocence or cases in which a manifest injustice has occurred. To date, the Justice Project has received over 5,000 requests for help and currently has anywhere between 40 to 50 cases in post-conviction relief proceedings or under the supervision of a review team. The Arizona Justice Project became the fifth organization in the United States created to help inmates overturn wrongful convictions. Today, there are more than 60 similar organizations worldwide.
