LEGAL AID CENTER OF SOUTHERN NEVADA HONORS SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEYS FOR PRO BONO AWARDS

LAS VEGAS (January 08, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that several of its Nevada attorneys received awards and recognition for their pro bono contributions to the Las Vegas valley by the Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada \(LACSN\). The awards were presented at the Legal Aid Center's 2015 Pro Bono Awards Luncheon at the Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino in December.

LACSN is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation which is a charitable organization dedicated to providing free community legal services to those in need. Their mission is to preserve access to justice and the provision of quality legal counsel, advice and representation for individuals who are unable to protect their rights because they cannot afford an attorney.

The following Snell & Wilmer attorneys were named to the 50 Hours Club for donating 50 hours of service and/or to the Honor Roll for accepting at least one new case in 2015:

Snell & Wilmer considers pro bono activities to be an important professional responsibility and strongly encourages all attorneys and paralegals to commit at least 50 hours per year to some type of pro bono activity. In 2014, several of the firm's Nevada attorneys were recognized in the 100 Hours Club, 50 Hours Club and Honor Roll. In 2011 and 2012, the Snell & Wilmer office was the recipient of the Lied Award as law firm of the year for contributing the most pro bono hours of any firm in Southern Nevada. In 2011 and 2012, Richard C. Gordon and Cynthia L. Alexander, respectively, both partners in the commercial litigation group of the Las Vegas office, received the Lied Award for the most pro bono hours of an attorney.

The Nevada offices of Snell & Wilmer serve a wide range of clients in the following practice areas: civil and commercial litigation; administrative law; real estate transactions; finance; corporate and tax; bankruptcy; government affairs; employment and labor; gaming; and construction law.
