URBAN LAND INSTITUTE WELCOMES REAL ESTATE ATTORNEY BYRON SARHANGIAN TO THE 11TH ANNUAL TRENDS DAY CONFERENCE AS MODERATOR

PHOENIX (January 25, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix real estate attorney Byron Sarhangian recently moderated a panel on “The Millennial Class” at the 11th annual Trends Day Conference, hosted by the Urban Land Institute (ULI).

With nearly 1,000 attendees, the ULI Trends Day brings together over 25 top industry leaders to discuss the most current state and national real estate trends, with a focus on what to expect in the future, where the best opportunities can be found, and how these components affect both public and private sector partners.

Sarhangian’s panel, which included the executive vice president of Mark Taylor, Inc., the marketing manager for Maracay Homes, a partner at El Dorado Holdings, Inc. and the founder of Co+Hoots, provided “straight talk” as ULI Young Leaders explored the lives of their fellow Millennials in relation to future household formations, job expectations, buying habits and interests. They discussed how Millennials will impact your business throughout the next decade, among other topics.

Byron Sarhangian

At Snell & Wilmer, Sarhangian’s practice is concentrated in real estate and business transactions which include purchase and sale transactions, leasing, financing and brokerage matters.
