HEIDI MCNEIL STAUDENMAIER RANKED AS A LEADER IN THE FIELD OF GAMING & GAMBLING IN CHAMBERS GLOBAL 2016

PHOENIX (March 21, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Heidi McNeil Staudenmaier, a partner in the Phoenix office, has been ranked as a Leading Lawyer for Business in the category of Gaming & Gambling (Global-wide) in the recent edition of Chambers Global.

In order to be recognized in Chambers Global, firms and attorneys need to demonstrate the ability to work across continents, very likely with the advantage of a network of offices. The clients of a globally ranked firm or attorney are likely to have a need for expertise across the world. Global-wide selections rely heavily on analyzing existing research. Rankings are assessed on criteria that include technical legal ability, professional conduct, client service, commercial awareness/astuteness, diligence, commitment and other qualities that the client considers relevant.

Staudenmaier is nationally recognized in the areas of Indian law, gaming law and business litigation. She represents tribes, tribal entities and businesses who engage in business transactions with tribes and tribal entities. Staudenmaier is a past president of the International Masters of Gaming Law, a founding member of the Native American Bar Association of Arizona and the executive editor of Gaming Law Review and Economics. She has been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® in the areas of Commercial Litigation, Gaming Law and Native American Law (2005-2016) in addition to being named Phoenix Lawyer of the Year for Native American Law (2015) and Phoenix Gaming Lawyer of the Year (2011 and 2016) by Best Lawyers. She was also recognized by Southwest Super Lawyers® in Native American Law (2014-2016).
