SNELL & WILMER PARTNERS WITH JP MORGAN CHASE FOR VETERANS SERVICE DAY

PHOENIX (May 2, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that a team of attorneys and paralegals from the firm's Phoenix office, along with a team of volunteers from JP Morgan Chase, participated in the Veterans Service Day.

The Veterans Service Day is dedicated to helping veterans with basic credit and financial counseling, benefits counseling and resume writing support. The daylong event was organized by U.S.VETS, a private non-profit organization providing housing, employment and counseling services to our nation's veterans, the men and women from all branches of the armed forces who have served their country from World War II to the current conflict in Afghanistan. The Phoenix branch of U.S.VETS began providing services to veterans in October of 2001. With five locations throughout the Salt River Valley, U.S.VETS – Phoenix provides transitional and permanent housing to 260 veterans daily, and provides over 400 veteran families with financial assistance. Each year U.S.VETS – Phoenix serves nearly 1,200 veterans through outreach, case management, housing services, individual and group counseling, and workforce related activities.

Phoenix partner Rick Erickson is on the advisory board of U.S.VETS and spearheaded the volunteers at Veterans Service Day. At Snell & Wilmer, Erickson practices in the areas of construction, commercial litigation and military law. He is also a decorated military officer, a leader and volunteer in the local community and recently served as the elected chairman of his state bar practice section. Other partners from Snell & Wilmer that volunteered were Marc Currie, Steve Jerome, Benjamin Reeves, Troy Roberts and David Sprentall.
