SNELL & WILMER'S ANNUAL SUIT SOIRÉE COLLECTS MORE THAN 900 CLOTHING AND ACCESSORY ITEMS AND 30 CHILDREN'S BACKPACKS FOR S.A.F.E. HOUSE

LAS VEGAS (May 3, 2016) The women of Snell & Wilmer hosted their Eighth Annual Second Chance Suit Soirée, a reception benefitting S.A.F.E. House (Stop Abuse in the Family Environment) on April 28 in the Las Vegas office, collecting gently used professional apparel as well as accessories and toiletries for the charity.

Like last year, guests also assembled 30 backpacks which will be given to children and teenagers when they arrive at S.A.F.E. House. The backpacks were filled with sleep outfits, toiletries, ear buds, toothpaste, toothbrushes and other personal items.

"We were delighted and grateful to have a very generous group of legal and business leaders attend this year's Suit Soirée," said Blakeley Griffith, Snell & Wilmer attorney and S.A.F.E. House board member. "Our community came together once again and collected 918 clothing and accessory items for S.A.F.E. House."

"Snell & Wilmer attorneys and staff also joined forces and donated the contents for the backpacks," said Patricia Curtis, Snell & Wilmer partner. "This event is near and dear to our hearts, and we are glad to help the children who may have only the clothes on their backs when they flee from their own homes, We hope these backpacks can provide the children some of the comforts of home."

This year's Suit Soirée collected suits, slacks, blouses, trousers, shoes, purses and accessories, filling numerous clothing racks and large boxes. Also donated were several large bags of toiletry items, such as shampoos, perfumes and body washes. More than 3,825 items have been donated during the past four years.

S.A.F.E. House is an organization that has been helping women and families since 1994. It provides quality crisis intervention, shelter, advocacy and counseling services to domestic violence victims and their children and accredited treatment services for those who choose to abuse. Established by a group of community leaders concerned about the needs of battered women and their children, the organization provides a comprehensive approach to working with families to Stop Abuse in the Family Environment.
