SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY NEIL PECK REAPPOINTED TO COLORADO STATE PERSONNEL BOARD FOR SECOND TERM

DENVER (June 14, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce the reappointment of Neil Peck to the Colorado State Personnel Board (SPB) by Governor John Hickenlooper. Effective July 1, 2016, this will be Peck's second term on the board and will continue through June 30, 2019.

"I am honored that the Governor reappointed me and has the confidence in me to do so," Peck said. "I'm very pleased to have the continued opportunity to be of service to the people of Colorado."

The SPB makes rules governing the state personnel system and hears appeals by applicants and employees in the state personnel system.

Peck noted that the "[SPB]'s mission is to resolve disputes involving state employees and agencies in a manner that's fair and efficient and protects the constitutional rights of the employees. Every Colorado state employee is entitled to due process, and we make sure that they receive it."

Peck was first appointed to the SPB in July 2013 and has served as Chairperson since July 2015. The SPB is comprised of five individuals: three who are appointed by the Governor and two who are elected by state employees.

For Peck, the reappointment to the SPB marks the continuation of more than a 30-year tradition of service to the people of the state of Colorado. Since 1982, he has received several gubernatorial appointments and reappointments, including to the Colorado Lottery Commission and to the Colorado Council on Creative Industries. He has also been appointed by Mayor Michael Hancock to the City and County of Denver Career Service Authority Board.

Peck, a career litigator, has been with Snell & Wilmer since December 2000 and currently serves as Of Counsel. For him, this reappointment is reflective of the firm's mission and values that encompass giving back to the community.

"[Snell & Wilmer] has been a substantial supporter of the community in a variety of ways across all of its offices," he added. "Significant public service is consistent with the firm's way of being a good citizen in its various communities."
