SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY JONATHAN KOTTER WINS DESERET NEWS CLASSIC MARATHON

SALT LAKE CITY (July 26, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce Salt Lake City attorney Jonathan Kotter has won the Deseret News Classic marathon men's division on Monday finishing with a time of 2:25:01.

Kotter, who previously ran for Brigham Young University's Varsity Track and Cross Country Teams, also finished first last year in the men's division. Kotter's time this year was a minute faster, setting a pace of 5:32 a mile. At Brigham Young University, Kotter was the third fastest 10k runner in BYU history. In 2010, he was also the runner-up in the Mountain West Conference Track and Field Championships 10k.

First run in 1970, the Deseret News Marathon is the oldest road race in Utah and the fourth oldest marathon west of the continental divide. The marathon follows the path the Utah pioneers traveled when they first entered the valley.
