IP ATTORNEY WILLIAM E. VAN CUREN REJOINS SNELL & WILMER'S PHOENIX OFFICE

PHOENIX (August 8, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that intellectual property attorney William E. Van Curen has rejoined the Phoenix office. He previously practiced with the firm from 2009 – 2015 before moving to Franklin, TN to act as intellectual property counsel at MARS Petcare.

Van Curen's practice focusses on assisting clients in many facets of intellectual property law, including strategic counseling, patent and trademark prosecution (domestic and foreign), licensing, intellectual property driven business transactions and litigation. He finds creative strategies to protect, defend, enforce and derive value from intellectual property assets such as patents, trademarks, copyrights and trade secrets. He has scientific knowledge and technical experience in environmental, organic, and inorganic chemistry; composite materials; process control; mining and medical devices.

Will Van Curen

Van Curen earned his J.D. from James E. Rogers College of Law, University of Arizona and is licensed in Arizona and before the United States Patent and Trademark office.
