FOURTH STREET CLINIC ELECTS SNELL & WILMER PARTNER DAVID LETA TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SALT LAKE CITY (October 10, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Salt Lake City partner David E. Leta has been elected to serve on the board of directors for Fourth Street Clinic.

Fourth Street Clinic provides quality health care services and related support to Utah's homeless population. By increasing access to primary medical care for these individuals and their families, and delivering it in a coordinated clinical setting, Fourth Street Clinic is a major partner in promoting community health, ending homelessness and achieving across-the-board health care savings.

At Snell & Wilmer, Leta has more than 40 years' experience representing debtors, creditors, trustees, creditor committees, asset purchasers, vendors, equity holders and other parties in all aspects of financial disputes, including collections, foreclosures, workouts, receiverships and bankruptcy. His experience enables him to analyze a financial situation from multiple perspectives and design creative, durable solutions. As an advocate, he handles litigation for clients involving the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal and Bankruptcy Rules of Procedure, the Uniform Commercial Code and applicable state laws. Leta also serves as a neutral in mediating financial disputes for non-clients. He received his J.D. from The University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law where he graduated Order of the Coif.

David Leta

In addition to Fourth Street Clinic, Leta is a trustee and president-elect of the S.J. Quinney College of Law Board of Trustees, where he also serves as the chair of the Board's Fundraising Committee. He is a fellow and a director of the American College of Bankruptcy Foundation, a member of the Pro Bono Committee of the American College of Bankruptcy Foundation, a member of the board of directors of Utah Dispute Resolution and the youth director of the Stonefly Society, which is a local affiliate of Trout Unlimited.
