ELEVEN SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEYS HONORED AT LEGAL AID CENTER OF SOUTHERN NEVADA'S 16TH ANNUAL PRO BONO AWARDS LUNCHEON

LAS VEGAS (December 22, 2016) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that 11 of its Nevada attorneys received awards and recognition for their pro bono contributions to the Las Vegas valley at Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada's \(LACSN\) 16th Annual Pro Bono Awards Luncheon. The awards were presented on December 9 at the Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino.

LACSN is a private, non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation which is a charitable organization dedicated to providing free community legal services to those in need. Their mission is to preserve access to justice and the provision of quality legal counsel, advice and representation for individuals who are unable to protect their rights because they cannot afford an attorney.

The following Snell & Wilmer attorneys were named to the 50 Hours Club for donating 50 hours of service and/or to the Honor Roll for accepting at least one new case in 2016:

Snell & Wilmer considers pro bono activities to be an important professional responsibility and strongly encourages all attorneys and paralegals to commit at least 50 hours per year to some type of pro bono activity. In 2015, several of the firm's Nevada attorneys were recognized in the 50 Hours Club and Honor Roll. In 2014, the firm's attorneys received awards for the 100 Hours Club, 50 Hours Club and Honor Roll. In 2011 and 2012, the Snell & Wilmer office was the recipient of the Lied Award as law firm of the year for contributing the most pro bono hours of any firm in Southern Nevada. In 2011 Richard C. Gordon, partner in the commercial litigation group of the Las Vegas office, received the Lied Award for the most pro bono hours of an attorney.
