

Established in 1938 • More than 400 Attorneys • Nine Locations
Throughout the Western United States and in Mexico

Announcing ...

SNELL & WILMER RENO ATTORNEY JACEY PRUPAS APPOINTED TO THE SUPREME COURT OF NEVADA'S COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL SELECTION

RENO (February 1, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Jacey Prupas, a partner in the firm's Reno office, was appointed as a temporary member to the Supreme Court of Nevada's Commission on Judicial Selection.

The Commission on Judicial Selection interviews and nominates attorneys for appointment to vacant District Court, Court of Appeals and Supreme Court positions. The Commission is composed of seven permanent members -- the Chief Justice of the Nevada Supreme Court, three non-attorneys appointed by the Governor and three attorneys appointed by the State Bar of Nevada. Regular Commission members serve four-year terms, with the terms expiring on alternate years. The complete list of regular members can be found here.

"I am honored to serve on the state's Judicial Selection Commission," said Prupas. "I look forward to working with Chief Justice Cherry and the entire commission to put forth the nominations for judicial vacancies following a thorough interview and vetting process."

Jacey Prupas

Prupas previously served on the Commission on Judicial Selection, Dept. 8 of Second Judicial District Court as a temporary member in 2012.

In addition to serving on the Judicial Selection Commission, Prupas is a current member and past board member of the Northern Nevada Women's Lawyers Association and serves in several capacities for the State Bar of Nevada, including an appointed member of the Nevada Board of Bar Examiners. She is also social chair for the Washoe County Bar Association. In the community, Prupas serves on the boards of KNPB and the Reno Philharmonic. She is also the founder and contributor of the Prupas Medical Student Scholarship Endowment, in honor of her late father Dr. Malin Prupas.

At Snell & Wilmer, Prupas' practice is concentrated in commercial litigation and business dispute resolution with an emphasis in contract disputes, complex business torts, malpractice defense, healthcare issues and personal injury. Prupas has defended numerous clients in cases of significant exposure in both federal and state courts throughout Nevada and California. She received her B.S. and J.D. from Santa Clara University. She has been named Legal Elite by Nevada Business Magazine and is also listed in the Mountain States Super Lawyers Rising Stars Edition.

The Nevada offices of Snell & Wilmer serve a wide range of clients in the following practice areas: civil and commercial litigation; administrative law; real estate transactions; finance; corporate and tax; bankruptcy; employment and labor; and construction law.

About Snell & Wilmer

Founded in 1938, Snell & Wilmer is a full-service business law firm with more than 400 attorneys practicing in nine locations throughout the western United States and in Mexico, including Las Vegas and Reno, Nevada; Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona; Los Angeles and Orange County, California; Denver, Colorado; Salt Lake City, Utah; and Los Cabos, Mexico. The firm represents clients ranging from large, publicly traded corporations to small businesses, individuals and entrepreneurs. For more information, visit www.swlaw.com.