LAW360 WELCOMES SNELL & WILMER PARTNER ANDREW F. HALABY TO LEGAL ETHICS EDITORIAL ADVISORY BOARD

PHOENIX (February 17, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Andrew F. Halaby, a partner in the Phoenix and Los Angeles offices, has been selected to serve on the Law360 Legal Ethics Editorial Advisory Board for 2017. The board's mission is to garner feedback on Law360's coverage and to gain insight from experts in the field on how best to shape future coverage.

At Snell & Wilmer, Halaby advises inside counsel, outside counsel, and law firms on professional responsibility and law of lawyering matters. The chair of the firm's Ethics Committee, he also serves as a member of the State Bar of Arizona Committee on the Rules of Professional Conduct and of the Supreme Court of Arizona Task Force on Lawyer Ethics, Professionalism, and the Unauthorized Practice of Law. He has served as a member of the Supreme Court of Arizona's Independent Bar Counsel Attorney Panel, whose members serve as volunteer bar counsel investigating and prosecuting disciplinary complaints on the Bar's behalf, and as an adjunct professor of law teaching Professional Responsibility, among other things, at the Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law at Arizona State University.

Andrew F. Halaby

Halaby is co-chair of Snell & Wilmer's Commercial Litigation Practice Group, where he has two decades' experience advising public and private clients in connection with a wide variety of business disputes, including breach of contract, business tort, antitrust, derivative action, class action, securities, lender liability, ERISA, False Claims Act, data security, corporate governance, commercial real estate, trust and estate, corporate defalcation, defamation and other complex matters. A registered patent attorney and former professional engineer, Halaby also has served as lead counsel in dozens of intellectual property and technology matters, including patent infringement, trademark infringement, trade dress infringement, unfair competition, cyberpiracy, trade secret misappropriation, copyright infringement and deceptive advertising cases.
