The Herberger Theater Center is a non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization whose mission is to support and foster the growth of performing arts in Phoenix as the premier performance venue, arts incubator and advocate. It was conceived as a pivotal piece in the redevelopment and revitalization of downtown Phoenix. Built in 1989 to support and foster the growth of performing arts in Phoenix as a performance venue and arts incubator, the Herberger Theater Center has contributed to the cultural and educational development of the Valley. Each year, approximately 120,000 patrons, including 30,000 school-aged children share the unique experience of live performing arts.

At Snell & Wilmer, Chiarello focuses his practice in employee benefits including qualified and non-qualified retirement plans, health and welfare plans and executive compensation. He earned his B.A., summa cum laude, from the University of Pennsylvania and his J.D. from the William & Mary Law School where he graduated magna cum laude.
