

Established in 1938 • More than 400 Attorneys • Nine Locations
Throughout the Western United States and in Mexico

Announcing ...

GOVERNOR DOUG DUCEY APPOINTS SNELL & WILMER PARTNER LUCAS J. NARDUCCI TO ARIZONA BOARD OF EDUCATION

PHOENIX (May 10, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix partner Lucas J. Narducci has recently been appointed to the Arizona Board of Education by Governor Doug Ducey.

“I am very pleased to appoint Luke ... to the state board of Education,” said Governor Ducey. “[He brings] wide-ranging business and philanthropic experience to the board, a strong focus on improving public education and passionate advocacy for preparing the next generations of Arizona leaders for [his career] and life.”

The State Board of Education is created by the Arizona Constitution and charged with the responsibility of regulating the conduct of the public school system. The Board is composed of the following eleven members: the superintendent of public instruction, the president of a state university or state college, four lay members, a president or chancellor of a community college district, a person who is an owner or administrator of a charter school, a superintendent of a high school district, a classroom teacher and a county school superintendent. Each member, other than the superintendent of public instruction, is appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. Members are appointed to a term of four years.

Lucas J. Narducci

Narducci has more than 27 years of experience in environmental and natural resources law. At Snell & Wilmer, he regularly guides clients through administrative hearings, litigation and other forms of dispute resolution, striving to protect their assets and keep their business goals in mind. He has extensive experience in acquisitions, divestments, expansions, mergers, ventures, operational compliance, employee work space safety, work place and third-party toxic exposures, audits, risk reductions and control methods. He also advises on policy and legislative developments that affect or could impact his clients and their businesses. His practice has taken him across the United States, as well as to Canada, Mexico and several countries in South America.

For more than 20 years, Narducci has been significantly involved on committees, boards and executive councils of numerous Arizona business, industry and manufacturing organizations and associations helping shape and develop an environment in Arizona for businesses to work well with the government and the communities in which we live, work and raise our families. These organizations and associations include, among others, the Arizona Chamber of Commerce & Industry, Arizona Manufacturers Council, Arizona Mining Association, Maricopa County Air Quality Department’s Clean Air Council and National Mining Association.

About Snell & Wilmer

Founded in 1938, Snell & Wilmer is a full-service business law firm with more than 400 attorneys practicing in nine locations throughout the western United States and in Mexico, including Phoenix and Tucson, Arizona; Los Angeles and Orange County, California; Denver, Colorado; Las Vegas and Reno, Nevada; Salt Lake City, Utah; and Los Cabos, Mexico. The firm represents clients ranging from large, publicly traded corporations to small businesses, individuals and entrepreneurs. For more information, visit www.swlaw.com.

###