SANDRA DAY O'CONNOR INSTITUTE APPOINTS SNELL & WILMER CHAIR MATTHEW P. FEENEY TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PHOENIX (May 10, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Matthew P. Feeney, chair of the firm, has been appointed to the Sandra Day O'Connor Institute board of directors. Feeney is one of six new members appointed to the board.

Founded in 2009 by retired Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor, the mission of the O'Connor Institute is to continue her distinguished legacy of solving important social, economic and political problems to advance civil discussion and civic action. The O'Connor Institute works to build consensus, form collaborations and help craft solutions to vital public issues, in an environment of mutual respect and shared purpose for a better state and nation.

"We are delighted to have these extraordinary leaders join our O'Connor Institute Board," stated Board Co-Chairman Peter M. Hayes in a prepared statement.

Matthew P. Feeney

At Snell & Wilmer, Feeney's practice is concentrated in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings, SEC reporting and compliance, and corporate governance matters, including advising corporate boards and board committees. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree, magna cum laude, from the University of Notre Dame and his law degree, magna cum laude, from Notre Dame Law School.

Throughout the course of his career, Feeney has been recognized for professional and community service excellence. Among his many professional awards, Feeney has consistently been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® (including Lawyer of the Year, Securities Law/Capital Markets Law (2015), Lawyer of the Year, Corporate Governance Law (2016) and Lawyer of the Year, Mergers & Acquisitions Law (2012)); Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business; and Southwest Super Lawyers.

Feeney has also been involved in numerous civic and charitable organizations. In addition to helping develop a formal pro bono policy for Snell & Wilmer in the late 1980s under which attorneys receive billable hour credit for legal services to the poor, Feeney is a founding board member and former chair of St. Joseph the Worker, an organization that provides job development services to assist homeless, low-income and other disadvantaged individuals. He also served as a board member and president of the Arizona Foundation for Legal Services & Education, which was created by the State Bar of Arizona to promote access to justice for all Arizonans. Feeney was also honored in 2014 by the American Jewish Committee with the Judge Learned Hand Community Service Award. He was recognized for demonstrating sustained contributions to the advancement of equality and democratic principles. Feeney also serves on the Board of Directors of the Greater Phoenix Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Directors of the Musical Instrument Museum, the world's only global musical instrument museum.
