SNELL & WILMER PARTNER CHRISTOPHER P. COLYER SELECTED TO SERVE ON THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS SCHOOL OF LAW BOARD OF GOVERNORS

PHOENIX (May 16, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Christopher P. Colyer, a partner in the firm's Phoenix office, has been selected to serve on the University of Kansas School of Law (KU Law) Board of Governors.

The Board of Governors serves the law school and acts as the voice of law school alumni. Board members represent numerous districts within and outside Kansas. KU Law alumni at Snell & Wilmer have included, among others, Frank Snell, the Firm's co-founder.

At Snell & Wilmer, Colyer assists clients with transactional and litigation issues in the areas of environmental, real estate, construction and administrative law. His environmental practice includes advising clients on complex environmental issues associated with real estate and corporate transactions and representing clients in federal, state and local permitting and litigation matters, including air quality, hazardous waste, water quality, underground storage tank and Superfund compliance. Colyer's real estate and administrative law practice includes representing large and medium-sized companies with municipal zoning approvals and appeals, liquor licensing and advising clients on real estate, leasing and state and local governmental permitting issues. He also focuses on renewable energy regulation and development, including contracting, leasing and permitting of solar and wind energy facilities on public, private and tribal lands. His construction practice includes negotiating and drafting construction contracts and representing owners and contractors in construction defect litigation. Colyer earned his J.D. from the University of Kansas School of Law.
