UTAH STATE BAR ELECTS SNELL & WILMER PARTNER MARK O. MORRIS TO BOARD OF BAR COMMISSIONERS

SALT LAKE CITY (May 23, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Mark O. Morris, a partner in the firm's Salt Lake City office, has been elected to the Utah State Bar Board of Bar Commissioners, Third Division. Morris will be sworn in at the Utah State Bar Summer Convention, July 27, and will serve for a three-year term.

The Utah State Bar is an organization comprised of Utah's 12,500 lawyers and judges whose vision is a just legal system that is understood, valued and accessible to all. As a bar commissioner, Morris' responsibilities include, but are not limited to, establishing policies to fulfill obligations of the Utah State Bar, serving on various commission committees and acting as a liaison between sections, committee and local bars.

At Snell & Wilmer, Morris has a diverse practice, with more than 30 years' experience in general commercial litigation, including litigation in the areas of construction law, real estate, securities, legal malpractice, employment, professional liability, trade secrets, general business disputes and defense of class action matters. He seeks efficient, amicable and reasonable resolutions to his clients' problems, including informal and formal negotiation and mediation before and after a case is commenced. Failing agreed resolutions satisfactory to his clients or disposition by motion, Morris has tried more than 60 cases to arbitrators, judges and juries in Utah and other states. Morris graduated cum laude and received his J.D. from Brigham Young University, J. Reuben Clark Law School.
