PROJECT REALITY NOMINATES SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEYS ALEXANDRA SANDVIK AND SEAN MOSMAN TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SALT LAKE CITY (June 27, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce Salt Lake City attorneys Alexandra Sandvik and Sean M. Mosman have been nominated to Project Reality board of directors, effectively immediately.

Project Reality is a non-profit, CARF accredited agency founded in 1970 that offers a variety of services designed to provide comprehensive, therapeutic treatment to patients with substance abuse problems. They primarily treat patients suffering from opioid use disorders and view substance abuse as a chronic disease with complex biological, psychological and social components. Project Reality’s vision for the treatment program is to ameliorate the suffering of individuals, families and the community through providing cost effective and accessible substance abuse treatment and prevention services.

Alexandra Sandvik

At Snell & Wilmer, Sandvik focuses her practice in commercial litigation and employment law. She helps companies and employers solve matters relating to employment discrimination allegations, policies and handbooks, and compliance with federal and state employment laws. In addition to her service with Project Reality, Sandvik is the membership and publicity committee chair for the Women Lawyers of Utah. Sandvik received a B.A. from Brigham Young University and a J.D. from Brigham Young University, J. Reuben Clark Law School.

Sean Mosman

Mosman focuses his practice on business litigation in state and federal courts. He represents clients in matters involving breach of contract, business competition torts, claims brought under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, nationwide class action cases, intellectual property litigation and various construction litigation matters, including construction defect and mechanic’s lien claims. Mosman graduated cum laude with a B.A. from Brigham Young University and received his J.D. from the University of California Los Angeles (UCLA) School of Law.
