TRISH REFO ELECTED TO MEMBERSHIP IN THE AMERICAN LAW INSTITUTE

PHOENIX (July 24, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Trish Refo, a partner in the firm's Phoenix office, has been elected to membership in the American Law Institute (ALI).

ALI is the leading independent organization in the United States producing scholarly work to clarify, modernize and improve the law. By participating in ALI's work, its distinguished members have the opportunity to influence the development of the law in both existing and emerging areas, to work with other eminent lawyers, judges and academics, to give back to a profession to which they are deeply dedicated and to contribute to the public good. ALI drafts, discusses, revises, and publishes Restatements of the Law, Model Codes, and Principles of Law that are enormously influential in the courts and legislatures, as well as in legal scholarship and education.

Trish Refo

At Snell & Wilmer, Refo concentrates her practice in complex commercial litigation and internal investigations, with extensive experience in financial institutions litigation, professional malpractice defense, class actions, trade secret litigation, and commercial and business torts. She chairs the firm's professional liability litigation group. In 2014, Refo received the President's Award at the annual State Bar of Arizona Convention. She is a frequent speaker at international, national, state and local continuing legal education conferences, including annual meetings of the American College of Trial Lawyers, the American Bar Association, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the CPR Center for Dispute Resolution, the Sedona Conference, the Judicial Conferences of the Seventh and Ninth Circuits, the Western States Bar Conference and various state bar conventions. Refo is former Chair of the House of Delegates of the ABA, former Chair of the ABA Section of Litigation and a former member of the Evidence Rules Advisory Committee of the United States Judicial Conference.
