CLAYTON EARLY LEARNING APPOINTS SNELL & WILMER PARTNER CURT D. REIMANN TO BOARD OF TRUSTEES

DENVER (September 11, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Curt D. Reimann, managing partner of the firm's Denver office, has been appointed to the Board of Trustees for Clayton Early Learning. As an appointed member, Reimann will support governance of the organization in alignment with the Clayton Early Learning mission, vision and values.

"I am honored to be appointed to the Clayton Early Learning Board of Trustees," said Reimann. "Snell & Wilmer has undertaken efforts in all of our markets to support early childhood education and development. The unique approach of Clayton Early Learning has proved successful in closing education achievement gaps for the children who need it most, and I am proud to play a role in the organization's advancement."

Curt D. Reimann

For more than 100 years, Clayton Early Learning has provided national leadership to advance the field of early childhood education by researching, implementing and disseminating innovative teaching models. The 501(c)(3) organization promotes educational equity for young children through family engagement, teacher preparation, and early education policy.

In his legal practice, Reimann focuses on banking and commercial finance with an emphasis on loan originations, syndicated lending, structured finance, renewable energy lending, loan portfolio sales and acquisitions, loan servicing, and loan workouts and restructures.
