SALT LAKE CHAMBER SELECTS SNELL & WILMER ATTORNEY DAVID LETA FOR LEADERSHIP UTAH CLASS OF 2018

SALT LAKE CITY (September 15, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Salt Lake City partner David E. Leta has been selected to participate in Salt Lake Chamber's Leadership Utah class of 2018. Leta joins local community leaders representing both the private and public sectors in a 10-month program designed to enhance leadership opportunities and provide an inside look at our community.

Founded in 1984, Leadership Utah participants attend monthly meetings on such subjects as health care, crime and law enforcement, community service, education, government, arts, sports and entertainment, economic development and tourism, environment and infrastructure, and religion and culture.

At Snell & Wilmer, Leta has more than 41 years' experience representing debtors, creditors, trustees, creditor committees, asset purchasers, vendors, equity holders and other parties in all aspects of financial disputes, including collections, foreclosures, workouts, receiverships and bankruptcy. His experience enables him to analyze a financial situation from multiple perspectives and design creative, durable solutions. As an advocate, he handles litigation for clients involving the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal and Bankruptcy Rules of Procedure, the Uniform Commercial Code and applicable state laws. Leta also serves as a neutral in mediating financial disputes for non-clients. He received his J.D. from The University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law where he graduated Order of the Coif.

David Leta

Leta is a trustee and president of the S.J. Quinney College of Law Board of Trustees. He is a fellow and a director of the American College of Bankruptcy Foundation, a member of the Pro Bono Committee of the American College of Bankruptcy Foundation, a member of the board of directors of Utah Dispute Resolution and Fourth Street Clinic and the youth director of the Stonefly Society, which is a local affiliate of Trout Unlimited.
