ORANGE COUNTY BUSINESS JOURNAL RECOGNIZES SNELL & WILMER AS A 2017 CIVIC 50 HONOREE

ORANGE COUNTY (October 23, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce its selection as an honoree for the Orange County Business Journal's 2017 Civic 50 Orange County. Several firm representatives attended the inaugural Civic 50 OC Awards Luncheon on October 19, 2017 in Irvine, California.

Since 2012, The Civic 50 has recognized the 50 most community minded companies in the nation each year as determined by an annual survey. For the first time in a local market, the Orange County Business Journal presents Civic 50 Orange County in partnership with OneOC which recognized the 50 most community minded Orange County companies based on investment, integration, institutionalization and impact.

Snell & Wilmer Orange County is involved in the community through pro bono work and local non-profit organizations. In 2016, the firm's Orange County attorneys worked nearly 2,500 pro-bono hours, considering it an important professional responsibility. Attorneys and staff also give their time and donations to local organizations such as Orange County United Way. The firm contributed over $65,500 to the non-profit last year.

Orange County attorneys William O'Hare, Deborah Mallgrave, Mark Foster, Jeffrey Singletary, Randolph Moore and Tiffany Brosnan attended the Civic 50 OC Awards Luncheon on behalf of the firm.
