SNELL & WILMER HOSTS NINTH ANNUAL SUIT SOIRÉE TO BENEFIT S.A.F.E. HOUSE, COLLECTING MORE THAN 1,465 CLOTHING AND ACCESSORY ITEMS

LAS VEGAS (October 27, 2017) The women of Snell & Wilmer’s Las Vegas office hosted their Ninth Annual Second Chance Suit Soirée, a reception benefitting S.A.F.E. House (Stop Abuse in the Family Environment) on October 19. More than 1,465 gently worn professional apparel items and accessories were collected for the charity.

Guests also assembled 30 backpacks, filled with comfort items, which will be given to children and teenagers when they arrive at S.A.F.E. House. The backpack items, donated by Snell & Wilmer attorneys and staff, were filled with sleep outfits, toiletries, ear buds, toothpaste, toothbrushes and other personal items.

“We appreciate and thank all who donated and helped make this event a success,” said Snell & Wilmer attorney Blakeley Griffith. “We received an overwhelming amount of donations, and we couldn’t be more grateful for everyone’s support and generosity.”

“The firm always looks forward to hosting this event,” said Snell & Wilmer Partner Patricia Curtis. “S.A.F.E. House provides invaluable services that help empower women and children in our Southern Nevada community, and we are happy that we were able to gather in support of this charity once again.”

This year’s Suit Soirée collected suits, slacks, blouses, trousers, shoes, purses and accessories, filling numerous clothing racks and large boxes. Also donated were several large bags of toiletry items, such as shampoos, perfumes and body washes. More than 5,290 items have been donated during the past five years.

S.A.F.E. House is an organization that has been helping women and families since 1994. It provides quality crisis intervention, shelter, advocacy and counseling services to domestic violence victims and their children and accredited treatment services for those who choose to abuse.
