BUILDING BLOCK FOUNDATION FUND WELCOMES MARK E. FOSTER TO BOARD OF ADVISORS

ORANGE COUNTY (November 30, 2017) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Mark E. Foster, counsel in the firm's Orange County office, has been elected to the Board of Advisors for the Building Block Foundation Fund, a local organization of real estate professionals focused on supporting Orange County's at-risk youth. Foster begins his three-year term on December 1, 2017.

The Building Block Foundation Fund was founded by industry veterans and is supported by the commercial real estate industry in Southern California. The organization provides an opportunity for the real estate community to funnel goodwill into a performance-based giving program that is sustainable, predictable and accountable. Building Block raises funds to support at-risk youths in Orange County through partnerships with local charitable programs. These programs help to mentor teens and move otherwise unskilled young adults into economically self-sustaining, skilled jobs and productive lives guided by fundamental values.

Mark E. Foster

At Snell & Wilmer, Foster concentrates his practice primarily on the representation of institutional owners, operators and developers, as well as financial institutions and investors focused on equity investments, joint venture formations, acquisitions and dispositions, leasing, real estate-related lending, and debt restructuring, workouts and reorganizations. His previous experience as in-house corporate and real estate counsel to major investment and development companies has provided him with unique insight into anticipating and addressing client needs with respect to their operational and real estate matters.

Foster sits on the Board of Directors for several Orange County organizations including Court Appointed Special Advocates of Orange County, Obria Medical Clinics of Orange County, and the Andrei Olenicoff Memorial Foundation. He is also a licensed real estate broker in the state of California.
