SNELL & WILMER PARTNER DANIEL S. WITTENBERG NAMED CO-CHAIR OF FOOD AND SUPPLEMENTS SUBCOMMITTEE OF AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION SECTION OF LITIGATION'S PRODUCTS LIABILITY COMMITTEE

DENVER (March 8, 2018) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Partner Daniel S. Wittenberg has been appointed Co-Chair of the Food and Supplements Subcommittee of the American Bar Association Section of Litigation's Products Liability Committee.

For more than 25 years, Wittenberg has counseled life science, pharmaceutical, medical technology, consumer product, cosmetic and food companies. He works with clients on risk management strategies, recalls, product liability issues and regulatory matters, including those involving the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and Consumer Products Safety Commission (CPSC). Wittenberg has attained certification as a Global Regulatory Affairs Compliance Professional (GRACP) and has served as national counsel for major medical device manufacturing concerns and regional counsel in mass tort cases. He also represents companies in commercial litigation and works with entities in university commercialization, startups and intellectual property matters.

Daniel S. Wittenberg

Wittenberg serves the life science and medical technology industry through his active involvement on the board of directors for the Colorado BioScience Association, for which he is Co-Chair of the Government Relations and Public Affairs Committee, as well as an executive board member of the association. Further, he is a frequent contributor to American Bar Association publications and a guest speaker on a variety of topics at state and national conferences.

Wittenberg earned his J.D. in 1991 from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law. He earned his B.A. in 1987 from the University of Colorado.
