SNELL & WILMER'S SALT LAKE CITY OFFICE WELCOMES TWO NEW ATTORNEYS

SALT LAKE CITY (June 6, 2018) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that attorneys Katherine R. Nichols and Rachael Motzkus have joined the Salt Lake City office.

Nichols is a commercial litigator who represents clients in a wide variety of disputes, including professional malpractice litigation, contract disputes, eminent domain proceedings, consumer arbitrations and partnership disputes. Prior to joining Snell & Wilmer, Nichols practiced in the Chicago office of Sidley Austin LLP, where she represented corporate and individual clients in complex commercial litigation and government investigations before the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission, the Federal Trade Commission and the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board.

Nichols is currently on the board for the Federal Bar Association, Utah Chapter. She received her B.A. magna cum laude from Wheaton College and her J.D. cum laude from Georgetown University Law Center.

Katherine R. Nichols

Motzkus' practice is centered in commercial real estate. Prior to joining Snell & Wilmer, Motzkus was a student honors intern with the United States Securities Exchange Commission. She was also an intern for Chief Judge R. Kimball Mosier at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Utah. Motzkus received her B.B.A from The University of Utah David Eccles School of Business and her J.D. from The University of Utah S.J. Quinney College of Law.
