SNELL & WILMER CHAIR MATTHEW P. FEENEY ELECTED TO CHAIR ALAS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PHOENIX (July 3, 2018) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Matthew P. Feeney, chair of the firm, was elected Chair of the Board of Attorneys' Liability Assurance Society (ALAS) at the ALAS Annual General Meeting last week.

Founded in 1979, ALAS is the country's largest lawyer-owned mutual, insuring 214 premier law firms with over 62,000 lawyers located around the world. Snell & Wilmer has been an ALAS firm since 1985. The ALAS membership continues to be defined by a large and diverse group of some of the finest firms based in the United States. Its members include 79 firms in the AmLaw 200, nationally prominent boutique firms, and many of the country's premier regional firms. Feeney succeeds Fran Milone, the former managing partner of Morgan Lewis, as Board Chair.

Matthew P. Feeney

Feeney has served on the ALAS Board of Directors since 2007. He served as chair of the Audit Committee as well as chair of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. At Snell & Wilmer, Feeney's practice is concentrated in the areas of mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings, SEC reporting and compliance, and corporate governance matters, including advising corporate boards and board committees. He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Notre Dame and his law degree from Notre Dame Law School.

Throughout the course of his career, Feeney has been recognized for professional and community service excellence. Among his many professional awards, Feeney has consistently been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® (including Lawyer of the Year, Securities Law/Capital Markets Law (2015), Lawyer of the Year, Corporate Governance Law (2016) and Lawyer of the Year, Mergers & Acquisitions Law (2012)); Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business®, Corporate/Mergers & Acquisitions (2004-2018); and Southwest Super Lawyers, Mergers & Acquisitions (2007-2018).

Feeney has also been involved in numerous civic and charitable organizations. In addition to helping develop a formal pro bono policy for Snell & Wilmer in the late 1980s under which attorneys receive billable hour credit for legal services to individuals of low income, Feeney is a founding board member and former chair of St. Joseph the Worker, an organization that provides job development services to assist homeless, low-income and other disadvantaged individuals. He also served as a board member and president of the Arizona Foundation for Legal Services & Education, which was created by the State Bar of Arizona to promote access to justice for all Arizonans. Feeney was also honored in 2014 by the American Jewish Committee with the Judge Learned Hand Community Service Award. He was recognized for demonstrating sustained contributions to the advancement of equality and democratic principles. Feeney serves on the Board of Directors of the Musical Instrument Museum, the world's only global musical instrument museum. He is also a member of the Board of the Sandra Day O'Connor Institute and serves on the Notre Dame Law School Advisory Council.
