PHOENIX ASSOCIATE MATTHEW P. CHIARELLO APPOINTED TO UMOM NEW DAY CENTERS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

PHOENIX (August 8, 2018) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Phoenix associate Matthew P. Chiarello has been appointed to the Board of Directors for UMOM New Day Centers effective immediately. His board appointment runs through 2020.

Founded in 1964 in Phoenix, UMOM is an innovative provider of shelter, housing and services for people experiencing homelessness. Every night UMOM provides safe shelter and supportive services for over 170 homeless families. They also offer nearly 300 units of affordable housing across the Valley, each with special Program Centers for residents.

Matthew P. Chiarello

Chiarello joined Snell & Wilmer in 2014 as a summer associate and was hired on full time after graduating from William & Mary Law School magna cum laude in 2015 and from the University of Pennsylvania summa cum laude in 2012. His practice focuses on employee benefits, including compliance with the requirements of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (“ERISA”) and the Internal Revenue Code. Chiarello regularly assists employers in the design, administration and documentation of qualified- and non-qualified retirement plans, health and welfare plans, and executive compensation programs. Furthermore, Matthew has experience navigating Department of Labor investigations, corporate transactions, Affordable Care Act reporting and large employer shared responsibility payments pursuant to IRS Letter 226J.

In addition to his work with UMOM, Chiarello also sits on Snell & Wilmer’s Community Involvement Committee, serves as Secretary for the Herberger Theater Center Young Leadership Board, Director for the Homeless Legal Assistance Program, chairs the Spring Conference Committee of the Western Pension and Benefits Council, and volunteers for the VITA Tax Clinic, a program that offers free tax help to people with limited means, persons with disabilities, or limited English speaking taxpayers who need assistance in preparing their own tax returns.
