SNELL & WILMER NEVADA ATTORNEY JACEY PRUPAS JOINS THE FELLOWS OF THE AMERICAN BAR FOUNDATION

RENO (August 14, 2018) – Snell & Wilmer is pleased to announce that Jacey Prupas, an attorney in the firm's Reno office, has accepted an invitation from the American Bar Foundation (ABF) Board of Directors to become a Fellow of the ABF. Membership in The Fellows is limited to one percent of the lawyers licensed to practice in the U.S. and its territories and to a limited number of lawyers in jurisdictions outside the U.S.

The Fellows of the American Bar Foundation is a global honorary organization of attorneys, judges and legal scholars whose public and private careers have demonstrated outstanding dedication to the highest principles of the legal profession and to the welfare of their communities. The American Bar Foundation's mission is to serve the legal profession, the public, and the academy through empirical research, publications and programs that advance justice and the understanding of law and its impact on society.

Prupas joins a number of Snell & Wilmer attorneys across the firm who became ABF Fellows last year and many others who have previously been accepted.

Jacey Prupas

Active in several bar organizations, Prupas is currently a member of the Northern Nevada Women Lawyer's Association. She is also an appointed member of the Nevada Board of Examiners for the State Bar of Nevada. Prupas is the Treasurer for the Washoe County Bar Association. She currently is a member of the Defense Research Institute and recently completed the coveted International Association of Defense Counsel's Trial Academy at Stanford University. Prupas also donates her time as a Board Member for the Reno Philharmonic Association and Channel 5 Public Broadcasting KNPB.

Prupas has been named to The Best Lawyers in America® publication for Commercial Litigation (2018) and has been recognized as a Legal Elite, Top Northern Nevada Attorney by Nevada Business Magazine (2013-2017), to include Best Up and Coming Attorneys in 2014. She was also recognized in Mountain States Super Lawyers Rising Stars Edition for General Litigation (2009, 2011-2018).

Prupas practice is concentrated in commercial litigation and business dispute resolution with an emphasis in contract disputes, complex business torts, malpractice defense, healthcare issues and personal injury. Jacey has defended numerous clients in cases of significant exposure in both federal and state courts throughout Nevada and California. She received her J.D. from Santa Clara University School of Law and her B.S. from Santa Clara University.
